Rub BBQ Company is a family owned business. Chef Jared Leonard and his wife Amanda love BBQ and LOVE Chicago.

From the owners - "We traveled North America looking for a place to settle. We lived on an island, tried out the desert, and spent some time in the mountains.

I grew up in Chicago & met my wife here. We were married here, we're starting a family here, and now we are lucky enough to be sharing our love for BBQ with the great people of this wonderful city." -Jared

Our motto: RUB IT, SMOKE IT, EAT IT!
